

Fund Summary

As of Jun 30, 2026

The Themes Humanoid Robotics ETF (BOTT) seeks to track the Solactive Global Humanoid Robotics Index (SOLGHRBN), which identifies companies that generate at least 50% of their revenues from activities which make use of technologies as reflected by the following areas: Humanoid & Service Robotics, Industrial & Autonomous Robotics, Assistive & Wearable Robotics, AI & Cognitive Robotics, Robot Mobility, Actuation & Mechatronics. BOTT seeks to provide investment results that correspond generally to the price and yield performance, before fees and expenses, of the SOLGHRBN Index.

Potential Benefits

Humanoid Robots:

Robots are expanding from factories into homes and workplaces. A $6 billion market for human-sized robots is expected within 10–15 years, potentially filling 4% of the U.S. manufacturing labor gap by 2030 and 2% of global elderly care needs by 2035. Advances in AI and robotics, along with their human-like form, let them work in existing spaces and adapt to various tasks.

Rising Automation:

The global humanoid robot market, valued at $2.43 billion in 2023, is projected to grow to $15.26–$66 billion by 2030–2032 at a CAGR of 39.2–45.5%, fueling investor interest.

Inception Date: Apr 22, 2024. Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future performance. Current performance may be higher or lower than that quoted. All results are historical and assume the reinvestment of dividends and capital gains. Visit themesetsf.com for most recent month-end performance. Performance is shown net of fees.

Performance is shown on a total return basis (i.e., with gross income reinvested, where applicable). Cumulative return is the aggregate amount that an investment has gained or lost over time. Annualized return is the average return gained or lost by an investment each year over a given time period.

The performance data quoted represents past performance. Past performance does not guarantee future results. The investment return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when sold or redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost and current performance may be lower or higher than the performance quoted. High short-term performance, when observed, is unusual and investors should not expect such performance to be repeated. One cannot directly invest in an index.

Investing involves risk, including the possible loss of principal. The investable universe of companies in which BOTT may invest may be limited. The Fund invests in securities of companies engaged in Information Technology, which can be affected by rapid product obsolescence and intense industry competition. International investments may involve risk of capital loss from unfavorable fluctuation in currency values, from differences in generally accepted accounting principles or from social, economic or political instability in other nations. BOTT is non-diversified.

Shares of ETFs are bought and sold at market price (not NAV) and are not individually redeemed from the Fund. Brokerage commissions will reduce returns. The market price returns are based on the official closing price of an ETF share or, if the official closing price isn't available, the midpoint between the national best bid and national best offer ("NBBO") as of the time the ETF calculates current NAV per share, and do not represent the returns you would receive if you traded shares at other times. NAVs are calculated using prices as of 4:00 PM Eastern Time. Indices are unmanaged and do not include the effect of fees, expenses, or sales charges. One cannot invest directly in an index.
