

Fund Summary

As of 31 December, 2025

The Themes Uranium & Nuclear ETF (URAN) seeks to track the BITA Global Uranium and Nuclear Select Index (BGUNSI), which identifies companies that derive their revenues from uranium mining, explorations, refining, processing, and royalties, as well as nuclear energy, equipment, technology, and infrastructure. URAN seeks to provide investment results that correspond generally to the price and yield performance, before fees and expenses, of the BGUNSI Index.

Potential Benefits*Rising Reactors:

Rising nuclear reactor requirements continue to drive demand for uranium production; nuclear reactor demand is projected to rise to 130,000 tonnes of uranium (tU) per year by 2040, a 98% increase relative to current levels.

Supply Shortfall:

As existing stockpiles dwindle, the share of uranium fuel supplied from disarmed nuclear weapons and other secondary sources is projected to fall sharply to just 4%-11% of the overall market by 2050, driving higher demand for uranium mine production to bridge the supply gap.

Going Green:

In order to meet rising renewable energy demand, operable nuclear capacity is projected to rise to 686 gigawatts electric (GWe) by 2040, a 75% increase relative to current levels, driving demand for both uranium and expanded nuclear infrastructure.

Investing involves risk, including the possible loss of principal. International investments may involve risk of capital loss from unfavorable fluctuation in currency values, from differences in generally accepted accounting principles, or from economic or political instability in other nations. Emerging markets involve heightened risks related to the same factors as well as increased volatility and lower trading volume. Narrowly focused investments may be subject to higher volatility. There are additional risks associated with investing in uranium and the uranium mining industry. URAN is non-diversified.

Shares of ETFs are bought and sold at market price (not NAV) and are not individually redeemed from the Fund. Brokerage commissions will reduce returns. The market price returns are based on the official closing price of an ETF share or, if the official closing price isn't available, the midpoint between the national best bid and national best offer ("NBBO") as of the time the ETF calculates current NAV per share, and do not represent the returns you would receive if you traded shares at other times. NAVs are calculated using prices as of 4:00 PM Eastern Time. Indices are unmanaged and do not include the effect of fees, expenses, or sales charges. One cannot invest directly in an index.
